

Library Database Brochure

About the database:

ProQuest is a multidisciplinary full text database. Subjects covered include the Arts, Business, Education, Engineering, Health & Medicine, History, Literature & Language, Science, Social Sciences, Technology.

What does it cover:

Scholarly journal articles
Dissertations and theses (official dissertation database for Library of Congress)
Company reports
E-books
TV & Radio broadcasts
Wire service & Press releases

How do I access the database:

From the library website (<http://library.dut.ac.za>) select the Databases link and browse until you find ProQuest Central.

Off Campus access

Use your staff credentials to login as instructed on the login page.

Mobile

Follow this link <http://tinyurl.com/dutmobile> to the library website and then follow instructions as above to the Databases page

Targeted Audience:

Researchers, academic, corporate, government, school and public libraries.

Special Features or further comments

Print, e-mail and save options are available for managing search results.
Results can be exported to Endnote
Extensive context-sensitive Help links on every web page
Training via Webinars

For assistance or more information, please contact your Subject Librarian