

Invitation to a Public Lecture Address: South African Library Week

MS Teams: Join here

Date: Thursday, 17 March 2022

Time: 09h00—11h00

Mr Nazeem Hardy, LIASA President

TITLE OF THE LECTURE:

ReImagine! RePurpose! ReDiscover!...Libraries!

Mr Nazeem Hardy is the current president of the Library & Information Association of South Africa (LIASA) for the period 2021-2023 and was the LIASA President-Elect for the period 2018-2021. Among his responsibilities are leading LIASA's National Executive Committee, planning and aligning activities with LIASA's strategy, sector trends, and development.

He is currently employed by the City of Cape Town's Library and Information Services Department (LIS). Previously, he served as Library Marketing and Research Officer, Head of the Library and Information Services Department, Principal Librarian, and Senior Librarian. He is currently a Senior Professional Officer at the Library and Information Service Department of the City of Cape Town.

Mr Nazeem holds an Honours degree and a B.Bibl degree in Library and Information Studies (LIS).

Programme Director:

Mr Romeo Matumba, Librarian: Marketing & Communication, DUT

Welcome & Opening Remarks:

Prof Sibusiso Moyo, DVC: Research Innovation & Engagement, DUT

Message of Support & SALW Remarks:

Prof Gift Mheta, Manager: Writing Centre, DUT

Student Activity:

Presentation by Mr Hlanganani "China" Shange

Introduction of the Guest Speaker:

Dr Malefetjane Phaladi, Director: Library Services, DUT

Presentation of the Public Lecture:

Mr Nazeem Hardy, President: LIASA

Vote of Thanks:

Prof Oludayo Olugbara, Executive Dean: Faculty of Accounting and Informatics, DUT